

BANGOR DAILY COURIER. BANGOR, ME. THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 3, 1878. VOLUME XLV--NUMBER 235.

Advertisements and notices are listed in columns at the top and bottom of the page. The main body of the page contains a large article titled 'The Golden Gate' by 'The Golden Gate'.

THE GOLDEN GATE

By 'The Golden Gate'

When the question of his employment in the new mill was first brought up, I was told that the work was not very good, but that it was a good opportunity to see the world. I was told that the work was not very good, but that it was a good opportunity to see the world. I was told that the work was not very good, but that it was a good opportunity to see the world.

The article continues with a detailed account of the author's experiences in the mill, including descriptions of the machinery, the workers, and the conditions of the mill. The author describes the mill as a place of great activity and interest, where he was able to learn a great deal about the world.

The article concludes with a reflection on the author's experiences and a statement of his appreciation for the opportunity to see the world.

